There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J.
Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, in taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure.

Good Manners Help.
A merchant who returned from England just before the war broke out has been voluble ever since on the manners of the children he happened to meet abroad. Apparently American parents and schools do not lay on good manners the emphasis that they receive abroad.
Yet good manners, like the gold at the foundation of all money, are current the world over. Emerson noted this:

"Give a boy dress and accomplishments and you give him the mastery of palaces and fortunes wherever he goes. He has not the trouble to earn or own them; they solicit him to enter and possess."

"All your Greek," Chesterfield wrote to his son, "can never advance you from secretary to envoy or from envoy to ambassador, but your address, your air, your manner, if good, may."

"The difference between a well bred and ill bred man is this," Samuel Johnson said: "One immediately attracts your attention, the other your aversion. You love one until you find reason to hate him; you hate the other until you find reason to love him."

Civility, polished manners, mean much to a youth in his first position.— Kansas City Star.

OUR CROSSES.
The crosses which we make for ourselves in this life by a restless anxiety as to the future are not crosses which come from God.
We show want of faith in him by our false wisdom, wishing to forestall his arrangements and struggling to supplement his providence by our own providence.
—Fenelon.

To the Boy of the Twentieth Century

So live that your after-life—the man you ought to be—may in his time be possible and actual. For away in the twenties, the thirties, of the twentieth century he is awaiting his turn. His body, his brain, his soul, are in your boyish hands. He cannot help himself.

What will you leave for him? Will it be a brain unspoiled by wrong living or dissipation, a mind trained to think and act, a nervous system true as a dial in its response to the truth about you?

Will you, boy of the twentieth century, let him come as a man among men in his time, or will you throw away his inheritance before he has had the chance to touch it?

Will you let him come taking your place, gaining through your experience, hallowed through your joys, building on them his own, or will you fling his hope away, decreeing wantonlike that the man you might have been shall never be? David Starr Jordan.

Limbs of the Mind

As our bodies, to be in health, must be generally exercised, so our minds, to be in health, must be generally cultivated. You would not call a man healthy who had strong arms, but was paralytic in his feet; nor one who could walk well, but had no use of his hands; nor one who could see well, though he could not hear. You would not valuntarily reduce your bodies to any such partially developed state. Much more, then, you would not, if you could help it, reduce your minds to it. Now, your minds are endowed with a vast number of gifts of totally different uses—limbs of mind, as it were, which if you don't exercise you cripple. One is curiosity—that is, a gift, a capacity of pleasure in knowing, which if you destroy you make yourselves cold and dull. Another is sympathy—the power of sharing in the feelings of living creatures, which if you destroy you make yourselves hard and cruel. Another of your limbs of mind is admiration—the power of enjoying beauty or ingenuity, which if you destroy you make yourselves base and irreverent.
Another is wit or the power of playing with the lights on the many sides of truth, which if you destroy you make yourselves gloomy and less useful and cheerful to others than you might be.
So that in choosing your way of work, it should be your aim, as far as possible, to bring out all these faculties as far as they exist in you; not one merit nor another, but all of them.—Ruskin.

Two Foes.
Two well known but undesired factors are that anxiety is no baker and baker bread; that worry is no tailor and makes no clothes.

THE IDEAL

The ideal is in itself. The impediment, too, is in itself.
The condition is but the stuff you art to shape that some ideal out of. What matters whether such stuff be of this sort or that, so the form thou givest it be heroic, be poetic?
—Carlyle.

CONSTIPATION MAKES YOU
DULL

That sluggish, listless, oppressed feeling generally results from constipation. The intestines are clogged and the blood becomes poisoned. Relieve this condition at once with Dr.
King's New Life Pills; this gentle, non-gripping laxative is quickly effective. A dose at bedtime will make you feel brighter in the morning. Get

He Made It "We."

It was the night of Lincoln's first election, and the little frame home of the Lincolns in Springfield, Ill., was filled with friends and relatives, all eager for some news of the election results. The reports for awhile had been coming in early and favorable, but after awhile they began to be less promising. Mrs. Lincoln had been by her husband's side all day. The crowd gradually began to dwindle. Then came the news that New York had been carried, followed immediately by the report that Lincoln had carried the country. The rest of the story would be better told by the great man himself.

"When there was no longer any doubt or reason for doubt," he related afterward, "I went up to my bedroom and found my wife asleep. I gently touched her shoulder and said, 'Mary,' she made no answer. I spoke again, a little louder, saying, 'Mary Mary, we are elected!'" —Brooklyn Eagle.

Slung at Annapolis.

For certain slang expressions used by cadets I am indebted to a member of the corps. From this future admiral I learn that a "bird" or "wazzo" is a girl or boy; that a "paw show" is a report covering delinquencies and that to "hit the paw" is to be reported for delinquency; that "steam" is marine engineering and to be "barged for juice" is to fail in examinations in electrical engineering, to get an "unsat" or unsatisfactory mark, or even a "zip" or "swabo," which is a zero.
Cadets do not escort girls to dances, but "drag" them; a girl is a "drag," and a "heavy drag" or "brick" is an unattractive girl who must be taken to a dance. A "slueth" or "slumpley" is a night watchman, and to be "dragged" is to be caught. Mess hall waiters are sometimes called "mokes," while at other times the names of certain exalted dignitaries of the navy department or of the academy are applied to them.
—Julian Street in Collier's Weekly.

Why We Walk in Our Sleep.

Roughly speaking, the mind is divided into two parts. One controls the actions of which we are conscious and the other those which we do unconsciously. In the latter class are such things as walking and breathing. So that the second part of the mind works equally as well whether its owner is asleep or awake. When the body or the other part of the mind is tired to the point of exhaustion or is harried by pain the second part is liable to be unduly active. Then it is that we are most likely to walk or talk in our sleep and have "nightmares." And because the acutely conscious part of the mind is dormant and not subject to fears the sleep walker frequently travels dangerous places unhurt.—

Drift From Country to City.

Some further statistics as to the drift of population in this country from the country to the city were presented in a recent census bureau report. Figures show that this drift has now covered a period of a century and a quarter, or from 1790 to the present time, 1790 being the year in which the first census of population was taken. Since that time the drift has been practically uninterrupted. In 1790 cities were extremely rare in this country. Only one had a population of more than 50,000.
This was New York city, which had at that time 33,131 inhabitants. Next came Philadelphia with 28,500, and then Boston with 18,320. In the entire country there were only 3,329,214 people.—Literary Digest.

English Parliaments.

During Queen Victoria's reign eight parliaments lasted over five years and two over six years. The property qualifications considerably restrict the right of suffrage, and only about one-sixth of the people are voters. All clergymen of the Church of England, ministers of the Church of Scotland and Roman Catholic clergymen are disqualified from sitting as members of the house of commons. This provision applies only to the clergy.

Package For Henry.

"Yes, Henry and I certainly possess similar tastes," exclaimed the adoring bride. "We are surely interested in the same things!"
"Yes," agreed Henry's mother-in-law grimly, "you certainly are. You care more for dear Henry than for any one else in the world, and so does he!"
—New York Times.

Inconsistent.

"And you won't buy that antique chair I got from you ten years ago?"
"No, it would be of little use to me in its present condition."
"What do you mean?" It's more antique than ever now!"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Attention Wanted.

Little Lydia had been given a new ring for her birthday, which none of the guests at the dinner table had noticed. Finally, being unable to stand the obscurity any longer, she remarked, "Oh, dear, I'm so warm in my new ring!" —Exchange.

Trifle Slow.

"Does your husband never offer to help you with the dishes?"
"Frequently, about the time I am ready to bring up the dishpan!"—Kansas City Journal.

money? Shrewed—A bachelor.—Stanford Chaparral.

but character.—La Fontaine.

Tonoline Is Beauty Aid,
Announces Specialist

Mildred Louise Talk of Interest to Women.

Health is a first aid to beauty theory, told by Mildred Louise, beauty specialist, of Boston, Mass., in a casual interview.

"I can recommend no better health giver than tonoline," said Mildred Louise.

"I was for many months a victim of stomach trouble and nervousness.
I had suffered terribly from pains that followed eating. Headaches also would add to my worries. Poor digestion finally brought on nervousness."

"Relief came, however, when I took the advice of several women who said,
'Take tonoline.'"

"Not long after I started the tonoline treatment, my patrons began to remind me of the improvement in my condition. And because health is the quickest way to beauty, the improvement was particularly noticeable in my face."

"What tonoline really did for me I cannot say. I am so grateful that I am very willing to recommend tonoline publicly."

Tonoline is a purely vegetable preparation which goes to the seat of common maladies—stomach and kidney trouble, catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, liver ailments and impurities of the blood—and quickly restores proper action. Tonoline is being explained daily to many people at your druggist's.

Notice:—As tonoline is a wonderful flesh builder it should not be taken by any one not wishing to increase his weight ten pounds or more. Although many reports are received from those who have been benefited by tonoline in severe cases of stomach trouble and nervous dyspepsia, chronic constipation, etc.
